SEVENTY-TWO DEAD
AT GUTHRIE, OKA.*THAT NUMBER ARE KNOWN TO BE LOST.*The Total Number of Lives Lost May Reach Two Hundred—The Financial Loss May Reach $500,000—List of Known Victims—Some Further Details.*Guthrie, O. T., April 29.—A cloudburst twenty miles north of Guthrie at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning turned the already flooded valley of the Cottonwood into a deluge and sent a wave of water six feet high sweeping with terrific force toward Guthrie.*The great wave came down the valley like a cataract and broke upon the sleeping city without a moment's warning. It came with a mighty roar, crushing houses in its path, and swept across the lowlands of West Guthrie, leaving death and devastation.*It is believed that over 600 homes are in ruins, hundreds of houses having been floated away on the crest of the flood.*Large numbers of people, possibly 200, have been drowned. Bridges between Guthrie and Seward have gone out and the railroad tracks are gone.
The estimated loss is between $200,000 and $500,000.*The dead, so far as known at this time, are as follows:*ANNA KAISER, a school teacher.*FRANK MAYER.*GEORGE OWENS.*J. H. CALHOUN, WIFE AND CHILD.*CHARLES RUFNER AND WIFE.
ERASTUS M'GILL, WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN.*LENA BURK.*MRS. WESLEY M'GILL AND FIVE CHILDREN.*JOHN METZ.*MRS. JAMES MONTGOMERY.
MRS. DUMMILLS.*JAMES LILLY.*MRS. ELLA DUMAS.*H. H. BECKFINGER.*SIX MEMBERS OF THE CLEM-MONS FAMILY.*GEORGE WESTERS.*MRS. JANE WATT.*TEAQUE RAY.*LEWIS DENNY, WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN.*MRS. KIT WATSON AND FIVE CHILDREN.*MRS. JOHN WATKINS AND SON.*JACK THORNTON.*MRS. GEORGE DRAMMONS.*F. E. HOUGHTON.*FIVE CHILDREN OF MRS. PITT-MAN.*JOHN GORDON.*GEORGE THORTON.*WILLIAM SMITH.*JACOB CASTROL AND FAMILY
OF SIX.*MRS. FRANCES MOORE.*JOHN BEARD.*MRS. SUE WILSON.*JENNIE TAYLOR.*SAMMIE JACKSON.*GEORGE SMITHERS.*For miles farms were completely ruined, bridges and tracks were washed out, and railway traffic in every direction is at a standstill.*The efforts of rescuing parties have, in many cases, proved in vain. Many people floated downstream before they could be reached, and their fate is unknown; others passed the night in trees in midstream or perched on housetops.*Fully two-thirds of the victims were colored people.*Business has been suspended in Guthrie, the stores and banks being closed.*As thorough an organization for relief as is possible has been made, but all aid has been necessarily retarded by the confused condition of things. It will*be impossible to explore the houses until the water shall subside, as many of them are submerged.*The flood is supposed to have been caused by a cloudburst supplemented by heavy rains. The Cottonwood river,*ordinarily a small stream that winds between steep banks in West Guthrie,*was bank full from a heavy rain Tuesday, but no alarm had been felt, as the*river had been rising gradually during the night. About 6 o'clock, however,*waters from a cloudburst had been ad-*ded to those already nearly up to the level of the high banks, and the deluge swept through West Guthrie.*Persons who saw the first wall of water said that it was about eighteen feet high, spreading entirely across the valley. There was no water in front of it save that in the river's channel.*The first wave was followed by others*in quick succession, until the whole*swelled into a bank of water from six*to eight feet high. Many had already*begun carrying their household goods*to places of safety, but few had made*more than one trip when they were*forced to flee for their lives before a torrent that no power of man could*hope to stay or stem.*They fled from their homes to the higher portions of the newly formed*island. In half an hour the mountain*of water had done its work and prac-*tically spent itself.*When the first shock of the disaster*was over the more fortunate on the*island immediately began to help*those nearest them, while across in*Guthrie proper prompt steps were tak-*en at rescue. The houses, barns and*other effects began to drift down*stream, each freighted with one or*more human beings. Boats or rafts*shot out here and there from the shore*and desperate efforts were made to rescue the people. Improvised rafts were quickly thrown together and started out into the stream.*Before many of them had been propelled a couple of yards from shore they were twisted and broken by the waters, and the would-be rescuers turned into the stream. Half a dozen rescuers were drowned even before those they had tried to save had been reached.*A negro woman with a babe in her arms managed to cling to a tree-top.
She grew weak and the baby slipped into the water and was drowned. She was finally rescued, and said her family of six had perished.*A woman wading from home with her baby on her head was seen to go under, and a man swimming the channel to reach four women and a baby was carried down stream.*Two women and a child were carried away on a bridge further down stream, and one man and two women in plain sight of shore were on a house roof when it went to pieces. They all perished.*Adjutant General Jameson of the territorial militia narrowly escaped with his family. He was forced to wade and lead his horse, with his family in the buggy.*John Metz, aged 55, was capsized while trying to save a woman, who sank before he reached her. Metz himself was barely rescued.*George Owens, attorney, Teaque Ray and Dick Pearson were precipitated into the water while trying to save some people, and Owens and Ray were drowned.*The wife and five daughters of Wesley McGill, colored, were drowned in their home.*It is impossible to get any definite news from the hundreds of rescued people on the bluffs west of the city, and those who escaped are rushing frantically about in search of missing ones.*It is believed that loss of life has also occurred south of Guthrie, along the Cottonwood river. Many farm houses in that district are reported to have been swept away. Seven miles south of here, at Seward, Hunt's store and the postoffice were swept away.*Five thousand dollars was raised in Guthrie at once for the relief of the sufferers.*TORNADO AND FLOOD.*Succession of Furious Storms Ends in a Cloudburst—Great Damage.*El Reno, O. T., April 29.—For the first time since the white man settled in*the Canadian west, twenty-nine years ago, Wednesday morning's sun rose over an Oklahoma lake. For ten days the dust-parched people had prayed for rain to save their crops or quench their thirst, as the case might*be. The flood of water that fignally poured from the skies wiped their homes and farms out of existence, and in many instances swept away human lives. The final storm and flood came*as a climax to a week of unusually heavy rains and damaging floods.*The dry spell was broken Saturday with a fierce storm that turned the streets into torrents, washed away crossings, tore out sewers and moved small buildings. It washed the earth clean. Saturday at midnight the people were frightened from their beds when a hurricane blowing forty-six miles an hour drove water through the roofs of their poorly-built or already damaged houses and threatened to carry away their possessions. They were driven in terror to their storm cellars and caves, and spent the night in momentary expectation of being borne away by the storm or flood.*Sunday morning shone bright and clear, and the gauge showed a fall of five inches since Saturday noon. The streets had been plowed with gulches, small buildings had toppled over, and here and there bits of furniture and other household effects floated about.
The Valley of the Canadian, which Saturday morning had been a beautiful stretch of farms and homes, on Sunday displayed a long network of connected lakes and islands, dotted with half-flooded houses, and horses and cattle struggling for places of safety.*Wednesday noon a heavy cloud swept up from the west and another deluge spread over the town. The water fell in sheets, and by 6 o'clock the gauge read 5.8 inches.*A calm about 7 o'clock brought attention to a black cloud moving toward the city from the west. It was a typical tornado, indicated by the peculiar whistle of the wind, which almost universally accompanies a "twister." The*cry, "Get under ground," arose on all sides, and the streets were soon filled with running, shouting people seeking cave or cellar. Stores and homes were deserted and the people huddled together awaiting the blow.*The center of the storm passed over the southeastern corner of the town, striking the hills across the valley, wrecking all it touched.*With the tornado came the heaviest fall of water ever recorded here in a like period over two inches falling in thirty minutes. A dam on the Ellison ranch gave way to the torrent and carried out a bridge on the Fort Reno road swept the fair grounds clean and flooded the yards of the Choctaw railroad. Farmers were compelled to desert their places in order to save their lives.*The rescue of many families was made at great danger to the rescuers' lives. A little child of Frank Holman fell into a washout crossing and was drowned. Mr. Bickford, a milkman, nearly lost his own life in trying to convey the Passavant Hospital in the police ambulance. The murderer escaping. The police believe the murder was committed for revenge.*TO STOP THE WAR WITHOUT DELAY*POWERS CONSIDERING INTER-VENTION.*France Sends a Warning to the Sultan
Through the Ambassador in Paris—
Opinion That Greece Must Accept the Inevitable and Accept the Situation at Once.*London, April 29.—Matters at Athens are likely to remain unchanged until the ministerial crisis is settled, when overtures from the powers to intervene are expected. The sultan is said to be willing to listen to terms. The downfall of the Delyannis cabinet is taken for granted, though it has not actually occurred. M. Ralli, who is likely to succeed Delyannis, was equally keen for war.*A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Paris says that M. Hanotaux, the French foreign minister, had a five-hour interview with the Turkish ambassador. It is understood that M. Hanotaux in the course of the conference urged the Turkish ambassador to advise the sultan to hold out the olive branch to Greece, adding that if the Turkish troops went further France would be compelled to come forward as the defender of the Christian cause. In that event, said M. Hanotaux, Turkey would have the more reason to regret the intervention of the powers, which would not serve as a prop for the Ottoman empire.*Little or nothing seems to be known at Athens or is reported here as to the movements of the Greek fleet. The only news of actual fighting in progress comes from Velestino, which commands the road to Volo. Possibly this indicates an intention of the Turks to march southward.*The Greek forces now extend in a fourteen-mile line from Pharsala to Velestino. Pharsala commands the Turkish pass and the road leading to Athens by way of Larissa.*The Daily Mail's correspondent says that King George on receiving a distinguished caller said to him: "I am ready to accept all my country's wishes.
What I desire is that not a drop of blood shall be shed on my account."*Conference of the Emperors.*Vienna, April 29.—The newspapers of this city, St. Petersburg and Budapest comment upon the meeting of the em-perors of Russia and Austria as being evidence of an agreement of the powers to speedily bring to an end the war between Turkey and Greece.*Must Accept the Inevitable.*Paris, April 29.—The French news-*papers urge the powers to intervene between Turkey and Greece, especially as the fate of the Greece dynasty is now involved, and as Turkey has every reason to be satisfied with her victories, while Greece must accept the inevitable.*German Cruiser Sent On.*Berlin, April 29.—The German cruiser Kaiserin Augusta, now in Cretan waters, has been ordered to Phalerum, near the Piraeus.*CONTINUE THE EXAMINATION*New Names Mentioned in Connection with Globe Bank Failure.*Chicago, April 29.—Miss Sarah Louise Ervin, Banker Spalding's private stenographer, appeared before the grand jury at 5 o'clock last night. She was*the last of the eight witnesses who told the inquisitors of the Globe savings bank failure yesterday. The examination indicated a very faulty memory on the part of the young woman, and her answers showed that she was not disposed to go into unnecessary details regarding her connection with Charles Warren Spalding.*Discussing the day's work, one of the grand jurors had this to say last night:

Deputy Sheriff Hugh Tully Uses a Cane on the Proprietor of the "Illinois House," and a Rockford Grand Jury Will Investigate—Other County News.

Deputy Sheriff Tully and two assistants arrested Rivenberg, the keeper of the Illinois House, near Beloit, again Tuesday evening. Rivenberg resisted and Officer Tully "batted" him on the head before he would submit to arrest. He was taken to Rockford where the grand jury is in session, and will be arraigned on the charge of selling liquor illegally. The Illinois people seem determined now that the "joint" across the line shall be closed.

WOODMEN'S CAMP AT FAIRFIELD

Lodge Was Organized at That Place—Death of Mr. Gage

Fairfield, April 29.—A Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was organized at this place last Friday evening with twenty-four charter members Dr. Rood and L. Waite of Darien, examined the applicants. Mr. Gage died at his home on Sunday morning, after a week's illness, aged nearly sixty-seven years. He leaves a wife, four sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held on Tuesday with the burial at Richmond. Miss Gusta Tehrn of Darien, formerly of this place, has been very ill of late, but is thought to be improving. The various evening visits in the neighborhood, have proved very pleasant affairs during the winter and spring. C. Kemp is recovering from his illness, and was able to ride out and visit at C. Robinson's, last week. Misses Emma and Kittie Andrews expect to leave this week for a visit with their mother at Fort Atkinson. Benjamin Clark of Richmond, who has been under the doctor's care all winter is gaining, and accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mattie, visited their cousins at this place last Saturday. Miss Gertie Wilkins of Monticello, Wis., has returned to Fairfield and will make her home at A. G. Cloves' this summer. Mrs. J. Bundy has been enjoying a visit from her daughter of Milwaukee. A member of the State Dairy and Food Commission was at this place last week for the purpose of obtaining samples of milk from the Fairfield factory. The result of the test did not prove wholly satisfactory to some of the patrons.

Mrs. James Gillies.

Emerald Grove, April 29.—A telegram from Boulder, Colorado announcing the death of Mrs. James Gillies came to hand Tuesday afternoon stating that she died on Tuesday morning. It will be remembered by many that Mrs. Gillies was treated for a cancerous difficulty and then went with her husband and daughter to Colorado. In spite of all however, the dread disease did its fatal work. Mrs. Gillies was one of the most exemplary of women and no one knew her but to respect and admire her. The sad intelligence casts a gloom over the entire community. In this most sore affliction the husband and daughter and friends have the united sympathy of all. It is expected that the remains will be brought back for interment although no definite particulars concerning the burial have been obtained.

WAS A POET AND WORKMAN

John McKnight, the Fence Builder, Was Familiar With the Classics

By the passing away of John McKnight, whose funeral occurred yesterday, Beloit loses one of its well known characters. Mr. McKnight was a fence builder and in that line he had no superior. But he was more than that. He was a poet who left no works behind him save the impressions made upon the better side of men's natures. He was a lover of the classics and so familiar was he with Shakespeare that he could recite whole pages from the poet's pen. He liked nearly everything he did in life to the utterance or act of some character in literature. The poet, historian or philosopher was his constant, invisible companion and he seemed to derive an infinite amount of satisfaction from their presence. Mr. McKnight also kept well informed about current literature. While he worked with his hands the labor was made light by the beautiful thoughts he built in his brain. He was rough in his exterior but his heart was finely shaped.

HEAVY DAMAGES ARE SOUGHT.

Mrs. Nutting Sues For Personal Damages and Her Husband's Death.

Two complaints have just been served on the St. Paul Railway company in suits brought by Matilda Nutting of Watertown before Judge Bennett in the circuit of Jefferson county. One suit is for $25,000 for alleged personal injuries to the plaintiff, and the other suit is for $5,000 for causing the death of the plaintiff's husband, William Nelson Nutting.

The first complaint alleges that on July 7, 1896, while Mrs. Nutting and her husband were riding in a carriage on their way to Watertown, they were run into by one of the company's engines and trains at the intersection of the public highway upon which they were driving and the railway tracks, about a mile east of the Watertown depot. The complaint sets forth that Mrs. Nutting was thrown through the air for a long distance and wounded in a frightful manner.

The second complaint refers to the same accident, and sets forth the details of the killing of Mr. Nutting.

A SNIPE HILL CASE
BEFORE THE COURT

NOTED ACTION OF ARQUETTE
VS. ARQUETTE.

The Wife Is Quite Sure She Would Have Peace, if Nothing Else, But the Court Decides To Postpone the Matter of Application For a Divorce.

Mrs. Hannah Arquette, of Snipe hill appeared in court yesterday accompanied by her 4 small children, for the purpose of obtaining a divorce from John Arquette, whom she charges with failure to support, abusive language and other shortcomings. Mr. Arquette also appeared, and carried the idea to the court that he thought he was all right. In view of the fact that Mrs. Arquette had heretofore commenced another divorce suit and dropped it, and that she had four children whom she would be without means to support if she obtained a divorce, Judge Bennett expressed himself to the effect that the hearing of the case had better be temporarily deferred. Judge Bennett then gave both Mr. and Mrs. Arquette the following wholesome advice:

Judge Bennett's Lecture.

"It is great mistake that you don't live happily together. You make your own misery and your own wretchedness. It would be just as easy for you to conduct yourselves pleasantly and agreeably and with affection toward each other now, as it was before you were married. You didn't get mad and quarrel, and kick and scratch and bite before you were married; because you would never have married, if you had conducted in that way. It is just as easy for you to live peacefully together as it ever was; instead of continually finding fault with one another and indulging in bad language, and getting farther apart from day to day. Mrs. Arquette don't you think you can live peacefully with your husband?"

Mrs. Arquette—"I could live all right, but I can't live without anything to support myself and children on."

Court—"What will you have to support your family, if you are divorced? You won't be as well off then, as you are now?"

Have at Least Peace.

Mrs. Arquette—"I don't know I am sure I haven't got anything now, but I don't want to be chased and slandered, and I will have peace if I get a divorce if I don't have anything else."

Court—"Do you want a divorce too, Mr. Arquette?"

Mr. Arquette—"I don't know how that would be. All I want is to take care of these little children."

Court—"I can't take the little children away from their mother, if she behaves well."

Mr. Arquette—"No; but I can see to them and give them something to eat."

Mrs. Arquette—"And that is more than he has been doing. For a long time he hasn't given me five cents to support them with."

Court—"Mrs. Arquette, have you commenced divorce proceedings once before, and abandoned them?"

Mrs. Arquette—"Yes sir, I did."

The court ordered that the trial of the Arquette case be postponed.

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

EZRA GOODRICH ON ROADS
Hauled More Loads of Grain Than Any Other Man Living or Dead.

Ezra Goodrich writes for the Milton Journal as follows: "We have raised every dollar of the tax for graveling on the Johnstown road; and there is still one year's tax unexpended. Every tax has been voted for by ballot, and each ballot said 'to take the gravel from the center of the road on the summit of Cutting hill,' for the Johnstown road.

"We have hauled more loads of grain from Milton to Lake Michigan than any other man, living or dead, and the pull up the Cutting hill used to be the hardest of any hill on the route.

"We wished to see this hill wiped out by Milton, and yet in a way not to cost Milton a cent, and thus attract the rich grain and stock trade from Rock prairie to Milton; but the rulers in Milton could not see things as we did to save themselves; and they have bought enough gravel to put on the Johnstown road, to have wiped out Cutting hill; and still they have not saved Milton one cent.

"We therefore wish to see them lay out this last appropriation on the Johnstown road, just as the people have voted to have it done, and see if it makes anybody sick.

"We wish to say that this is an ad and not an item, for if the Journal editors published it as an item, the Janesville Gazette might call them 'Ezra's Organ' and that would be the last of them. EZRA GOODRICH."

COMMON SENSE CURE.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Permanently by Curing the Cause.

Remarkable Remedy Which Is Bringing Comfort to Thousands of Sufferers.

Probably half the people who see this article suffer from piles. It is one of the commonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People have it for years and just because it is not immediately fatal they neglect it. Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles has often caused death. Hemorrhages occur from no apparent cause and loss of blood causes death. Hemorrhages occur during surgical treatment, often causing death.

Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unsolicited testimonial we have lately received:

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from piles for forty years and from itching piles for twenty years and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure have effectively cured me.

Most druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you if you ask them to. It is one dollar per package and is put up only by the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

THE BRITISH ARMY
Obtains Coffee Direct From the Plantations.

The British government formerly brought the coffee intended for the army direct from the coffee plantations in Java, and the term "Old Govt Java" is familiar to all.

Mr. P. M. Hanney, now manager of the grocery department of the great house of Siegel, Cooper & Co., Chicago, was located in Java for about nine years, purchasing coffee for Her Majesty's troops, and his ability to judge of the quality and flavor of coffee will hardly be questioned.

Experts of Tea, Coffee, Tobacco and Whisky are not always free users of the article they judge so keenly of. Indeed the reverse is frequently true.

In Mr. Hanney's family, Postum, the health coffee made by the Postum Cereal Co. (Lim.) of Battle Creek, Mich., is used in place of coffee. The immediate cause being that the wife had trouble in digesting coffee, and Mr. H., knowing that the grain beverage which looks so much like like coffee, and which fits the coffee drinker's taste, was a pure and nourishing drink introduced it into his own family with the result that the old ailments which were directly attributable to coffee drinking, have materially disappeared.

Proper adjustment of food and drink means good bodies, clear minds and the ability to push to the front and make a success of life, while those who insist upon using dietary articles as they know check digestion and impair the health, will lag in the race for prosperity. The law of the survival of the fittest is plainly marked.

"Just as good" as Postum Cereal Food Coffee are words used to defraud the public.

A NOTE CASE IS NOW IN COURT
William Beckhow Says Documents Bearing His Name Are Forgeries.

Whether or not William Beckhow will have to pay the William Dering & Company of Chicago, $140 for farm machinery, will be settled at this term of the circuit court.

Mr. Beckhow is a resident of Beloit, but in 1894 he resided in the state of Iowa. At Forest City, Iowa, the Dering company has an agent and of this man Beckhow claims that he purchased several machines but that he traded and paid for them before he left the state. Now the Dering company claim that they hold two of Beckhow's notes, one for $63 and one for $70, both of which are unpaid.

Beckhow claims that these notes are both forgeries and that he does not owe the company a dollar. Whether or not the notes are forgeries is the question at issue. Whitehead, Matheson & Smith appear for the defendant and Attorney J. C. Rood of Beloit represents the plaintiff.

THE NEW BANKRUPTCY LAW.

Business men expect much of the bankruptcy law passed by the legislature just before adjournment. It corrects many irregularities that had grown up under the old law. The old law prohibited prefecees but whenever they existed the assignments and not the preferences were declared void. This encouraged tedious and expensive litigation and often resulted in a few of the creditors being paid in full and the balance receiving little or nothing. Another defect in the law was that a debtor in failing circumstances could allow a judgment to be taken against him or to permit an attachment to be made upon his property, which would result in protecting certain friends or favored creditors others having no legal remedy.

The important changes made by the new law are that where preference exist, the preference will be declared void and the assignment valid. The courts are given powers for amending assignments, inventories and all papers and documents relating to assignments, so as to carry out the intent of the assignor, and whenever necessary are empowered to appoint a receiver to administer the assets for the benefit of all creditors. Provision is also made for allowing a debtor, whose property has been seized under an execution or writ of attachment, to make an assignment within ten days thereafter, which results in dissolving the levy upon his property, which is then turned over to an assignee or receiver and distributed pro rata among all the creditors. These provisions are intended to prevent preferences in assignments.

Payments in part or whole of a past due debt in the usual course of business are protected. The same proceedings may be had for the discharge of an insolvent debtor as under the old law. The provision making void confessions of judgment, chattel mortgages or other securities given within sixty days prior to the making of assignments is contained in force. Insolvency is defined and provision is made for all provisional remedies necessary to carry out the intention of the act.

The two main objects of this act, the prohibition of preferences and the involuntary assignment feature, are leading features of the Torrey bankruptcy bill, which has been before congress for several years, and so is likely to agree very closely with national legislation on the subject.

A LESSON FOR UNCLE SAM.

There is a lesson to the United States in the promptness and fury with which the Turco-Grecian war began after the first blow was struck. The United States may not always be exempt from the perils of war that confront other great nations, and when war does come, we shall have scant time to put our sea coast defenses in good order. War for us is, of course, not in sight, but is always among the possibilities, and this should be borne constantly in mind. The forts already existing should be strengthened without delay, and new ones built wherever needed, while the work of creating an efficient navy should be prosecuted with vigor and intelligence.

TURKEY IN THE LEAD.

It looks as if Turkish troops had gained their point in Greece by the impetuosity and vigor of their advance. A prolonged war would have been full of danger to the Turkish cause for a dozen Turkish provinces were ready to be stirred into revolt.

From the first the aggressive strategy of the Turkish army has borne marks of careful preparation, and the German military experts loaned to the sultan by Emperor William have evidently tried to demonstrate that the Von Moltke style of pushing things is well understood by his successors. It is a pity the German military machine is used, for the sake of practice against an army of Christians and in behalf of a Mohammedan tyrant. But the despotic war lord at Berlin fancies that the divine right of kings is to be re-established, and that his is the hand to strike the decisive blow. In the present instance it looks as if he had been playing the game of his old enemy Russia, and the rest of Europe looks on with interest to see what he has gained.

Another important change, which is new in this state, provides for involuntary assignment, and enables two or more creditors holding claims not less than $200 in the aggregate to compel the appointment of a receiver and a pro rata distribution when any attempt is made with or without the consent of the insolvent debtor to give one creditor preference over others.

A NECESSARY SALE.

Change of Firm July 1. Reduces Prices Materially.

The change in our firm which takes place July 1, makes it necessary that we reduce stock and raise money before that time. Mr. H. M. Edwards, who has been connected with the concern for the past five years, will engage in other business at that date. To rush stock out fast we will make a reduction of from 10 to 50 per cent on every shoe in the store.

This includes all spring stock, colored goods, etc., in men's, women's, Misses' and children's shoes. No better opportunity has ever been offered for the purchase of good shoes at so low prices and coming at this time of the year when everybody needs footwear for the summer, will prove a great benefit to all persons. Perfect confidence can be placed in this sale as in all other things talked of by us. We never try to fool people on goods or prices. Remember the reduction starts on Saturday next. A. A Story of a Wonderful Cure from the Terrible Effects of Dyspepsia.

Sufferers From Similar Trouble Should Follow Her Example.

Mrs. Charles Bennett, 456 Goodhue Street, St. Paul, was for years a sufferer of that most painful and dangerous disease, Dyspepsia, accompanied by severe Liver Troubles. She tried everything, without relief, until at last she was persuaded to use Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, which quickly and permanently cured her. To use her own words, she says:—

"To the best of my knowledge, I have never had a severe attack of dyspepsia since I have been cured. I have had a few attacks of liver trouble, but they are not nearly so bad as they used to be. I feel much better now than I did when I first got well."

COURT HOLDS BARRY AND HE'S IN JAIL

FIRST COUNT IN INFORMATION DISMISSED.

Charge Now Is "Assault and Battery," But the "Previous Conviction" Clause Is in Effect, So He May Go to Waupun if Convicted—Other Court News.

When Richard Barry Jr. appeared in the municipal court this morning, he was discharged from the first count in the information—that of assault with intent to do great bodily harm—and on May 5 he will be tried on the charge of "assault and battery and previous conviction."

In case he is found guilty, the law allows him the right to serve three years in state's prison. District Attorney Jackson appeared for the state while Attorney Wilson Lane appeared for the defendant and in default of $500 bail Barry was remanded to jail. He is charged with beating Thomas Nash, and the "previous conviction" clause in the law makes the offence a very serious one.

The Potter Case In Court.

"I have been looking for a chance so leave that woman for the past ten years" said William Potter, in the municipal court yesterday afternoon as he was arraigned to answer to the charge of not supporting his wife.

"Well that is nothing to be proud of" replied District Attorney Jackson who was conducting the prosecution.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter reside on Forest Park boulevard. Both parties are well known and both have their friends who will appear, when the proper time comes to give their testimony. Mr. Potter declares that he will not live with his wife under any circumstances and that he has commenced a suit for divorce.

Mrs. Potter says that she intends that he shall help support her, nevertheless, consequently, she swore out a warrant for his arrest.

Both Sides Told.

Under Sheriff Cochrane served the papers and the defendant appeared in court yesterday. Sutherland & Nola acted as his attorneys while District Attorney Jackson is prosecuting. A dozen witnesses were on hand. Mrs. Potter testified that their wedded life had never been very pleasant and her husband had not treated her the way a husband should.

Mr. Potter then took the stand, and in a voice that could be heard at some distance, told his tale of woe. He said that even after the divorce action papers had been served on her, he sold his cow and gave her all the money he had in the world—$30.

The court held Mr. Potter for trial and the case is set for May 6. In bonds of $250, the defendant was released.

Jackman Taken To Asylum.

In charge of Sheriff Acheson, Paul Jackman, the insane vagrant, was taken to the asylum at Mendota this morning on the 10:50 train. Jackman appeared to realize the situation, and seemed to be rather pleased with the idea of being removed from a jail to a hospital.

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW.

Mrs. A. R. Chapin.

Mrs. Adelia R. Chapin died at the home of her son, E. L. Chapin, near Charles City, Iowa, Saturday, April 24 aged sixty-eight years. Mrs. Chapin was the widow of Don F. Chapin, for many years a resident of the town of Janesville. About eighteen years ago they removed to Iowa where, a few years later Mr. Chapin died. Mrs. Chapin was taken sick with the grip three months ago. This was followed by pneumonia, but the immediate cause of her death was heart failure.

She leaves three sons, Edwin L. and Gideon of Iowa, and F. W. Chapin of this city, besides ten grandchildren to mourn her loss. The funeral was held Monday, April 26, and her remains were tenderly laid away beside her husband in the Charles City cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Ferris.

Rev. Robert C. Denison, of the Congregational church conducted funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Harriet S. Ferris this afternoon at 2 o'clock at their Fourth avenue residence. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful and included a handsome design from the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Congregational church. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were David Jeffris, F. F. Lewis, John M. Whitehead, H. C. Stearns, John F. Spooner and J. T. Wright.

Funeral of James Tice.

All that was mortal of the late James Tice was laid to rest this afternoon in Oak Hill cemetery. Services conducted by the Rev. H. W. Thompson, assisted by the Rev. Dr. M. G. WOODMEN IN LOVE WITH JANESEVILLE

WANTED TO VISIT THIS CITY AGAIN.

If Delegate Ashcraft Had Asked For the Annual Picnic in Behalf of the Local Camp, the Request Would Have Undoubtedly Been Granted—Delegates All Pleased.

The Modern Woodmen of America wanted to make a pilgrimage to this city again this summer.

Janesville could have had the picnic for next year, for the asking.

At the meeting held in De Kalb yesterday each of the one hundred delegates present had words of praise for Janesville, and the treatment accorded them in the city last summer; and all were in favor of again holding the annual gathering here.

It is doubtful if any city in the state will equal the Bower City turnout on this occasion and De Kalb will be repaid for the handsome "lift" given Janesville last summer.

The local camp made no effort whatever to secure it and Delegate W. H. Ashcraft Jr., who represented Florence Camp was not instructed to even ask for it. For this reason the meeting voted to hold the picnic in Rockford.

The De Kalb meeting was full of interest. The date for the next picnic was set for next June 16. Janesville, it is expected, will send a delegation that will number near the thousand mark and special trains at reduced rates will be secured.

Officers were elected as follows:

President—Dr. Bunce, Rockford.

Secretary—Bennett, Rockford.

Treasurer—Fay, Rockford.

Dr. Bunt of Rockford, A. W. Fisk of De Kalb, and F. O. VanGilder of Seymour were elected as the committee on transportation and the meeting closed with a banquet.

WAS A VICTIM OF BAD LUCK

Former Prominent Resident of New York Seeks Charity.

With a deep gash several inches long on his head; with the small bones of his right hand fractured; and with his bare feet protruding from his weather beaten shoes, James McBride, a respected resident of New York state, made his way up the stairs in the Jackman block yesterday to the office of Poor Master Kryon.

His story was a sad one of misplaced confidence, and failure of Western ventures. He said that he came to Minnesota two years ago to make a fortune. Hard times, he said, were the cause of losing what money he had and now he was on his way home to join his family. He reached this city from Madison on a ticket furnished by the poor master at the Capital City. The injuries on his head and arms, he said, were received during a runaway accident at Plainview, Minn., and to prove this fact he carried a written statement from Dr. W. T. Adams of Elgin, Minn.

Poor Master Kryon after hearing the man's story gave him a ticket to Harvard, Ill. He claims that he has relatives in Chicago who may help him find a home.

HALF A LIFETIME

For Thirty-Five Years Ohrenberger, of Montague, Had Kidney Trouble Till He Couldn't Rest.

It's All Off Now, For He Discovered Dodd's Kidney Pills Were the Cure He Long Had Sought and Ached Because He Found It Not.

Montague, Mich., Dec. 24—Joseph Ohrenberger of this town, never tires of telling how he has been relieved of backache which had caused his suffering for 35 years.

"Thirty-five years is a pretty long time to have a backache isn't it," he said to your correspondent. "Yet that is just how long I suffered. Most of that time I did not know what causes the backache, but supposed it to be due to a fall which I received. Then I learned that my kidneys were out of order and that was the true cause."

"Did you doctor for it?" he was asked.

"Did I?" he repeated, "I tried all the remedies you ever heard of. When ever I heard of a new one, I would try it."

"And did none of them help you?"

"Not one of them gave me any benefit whatever until I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have only taken six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and can state most positively that they have cured me."

"You have no return of the aches?"

"No. Why should I? I have cured my kidneys. The aches all spring from diseased kidneys. Now they are well, I am as hearty as I was 35 years ago. But I look back with regret at what I have gone through, and I tell you if I knew of any one who was suffering as I did, I would sit down and write them to drop all other medicines and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Stick to them and you will be cured. I cannot make it too strong."

The manufacturers of DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS do not claim for them anything that they cannot substantiate by the testimony of witnesses like Mr. Ohrenberger. They claim that the pills will cure every disease of the kidneys, and any trouble arising from bad kidneys. Nothing more; nothing less.

Price 50 cents a box; six boxes for $2.50.

For sale at all druggists, or may be obtained by mail of the DODD'S MEDICINE CO., 638-642 Elliot Square, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHAT IS WORN.

Black Veils With Chenille Dots — Tan Shoes and Straight Heels.
Hats are worn much farther forward over the eyes than formerly and are correspondingly tipped up at the back, where a great deal of trimming is placed.
Feather boas are seen as much as ever, but ostrich feathers and marabou prevail, black being first choice and grays next. Very few colored boas are seen.
Black veils with a pattern in chenille dots along the edge are a novelty of the season.
Tan shoes are established as a permanent thing, apparently, and are no longer confined simply to hot weather and outing.

BODICE.

wear. Many persons wear them in winter as well as in summer, the tan calf being softer and more flexible than ordinary black leather. All shades of tan are seen, from the pale tone, which is almost a cream, to the brown which approaches bronze. Straight, military heels are upon some of the new boots.

Gauze and mousseline de soie, while tulle, are used to an immense extent, both for millinery and trimming, and the fashion of fluffy collarettes made of these filmy materials is still prevailing. They are puffed, ruched and plaited, mixed with ribbon, lace and flowers, and form a most effective addition to the costume. Nearly all faces are favorably affected by them, only persons who have a remarkably short neck appearing at a disadvantage.

Mousseline de soie is preferred to gauze for trimming skirts, as it has more body and is less fragile. Ruffles and plaitings of mousseline de soie are to be much used for trimming summer gowns, which will be very light and very much ornamented.

A picture is given of a blouse bodice of milie green mousseline de soie. It is gathered into a round yoke form at the top by a series of shirrings and opens at the left side under a cascade of plaited cream mousseline de soie mixed with bows of blue velvet. Very narrow bands of blue velvet follow the lines of shirring and the puffed sleeves are banded by blue velvet.

The bodice has a very short full basque. The belt is of royal blue velvet and is tied at the side.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

COSTUMES OF THE MOMENT

Etamines, Flowered Muslins, Batistes and Lawns—Green and Black Costume.

Costume dinners and balls have been much in favor in Paris this winter and have not yet ceased. Louis Quinze and Louis Seize fashions are the ones most frequently revived on these occasions, and afford an inexhaustible mine for the costumer, as they are extremely varied and picturesque and are becoming to almost every one. Russian and Roumanian costumes are also greatly liked. No better opportunity could be given for the wearing of jewelry, either antique or modern, than is afforded by such entertainments, and what ornaments are unsuited to the present style of dress—and such ornaments are few, jewelry being fashionable just now—can yet be worn at these festivities.

Lace is enjoying high favor, both the handmade and imitation sorts being much worn. The machine made laces are so close a copy of the real thing, nowadays, that it is often difficult to tell the two apart.

Ettaines and flowered muslins are to be much worn, over an underdress of silk. Openwork batistes also are fashionable, while the elaborate kinds of linon seen this season are surprising. Some have stripes of valenciennes lace woven into the fabric, some are heavily embroidered, some are perforated and embroidered with silk. The newest are accordion plaited, with a rich design of lace and embroidery along one edge, which serves as the foot of the skirt. Parasols are made to match, covered with lace and embroidery and are often accordion plaited likewise, over a plain silk lining. Black and white are chiefly employed on these linons, although colors are also seen.

A picture is given of a green and black costume. The black satin skirt has a train and opens over a tablier of broche silk of two tones of green. The tablier has a deep flounce of black lace. The black satin bodice has revers of black satin embroidered with spangles and jet and bordered with a frill of lace. The pointed vest of green broche silk is ornamented with little buttons and opens over a full plastron of black lace. The sleeves of black satin are slightly bouffant at the top, and there are frills of embroidered gauze at the neck and wrists.

The small toque has a pointed crown of gold embroidery and is trimmed with pale green plumes and black plaited gauze.

A SIMPLE TIRE REPAIR.

Punctures in the well known Morgan & Wright tire are mended about as easily as a man would close a hole in his finger with a bit of court plaster. Inside of the inner tube of the tire lies a long strip of patching rubber, like this:

By injecting M. & W. quick-repair cement through the puncture into this inner tube, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, like this,

the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, like this:

Very simple, but—now every rider should remember these two "butts," or he will fail:

Before injecting cement, pump up the tire. If you don't, the inner tube will be flabby, like this, and the cement will not get inside of it, where the repair strip lies.

When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat, when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.

AWFUL LOSS OF LIFE.

The schoolhouse for colored children was struck at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the structure shattered and about fifty pupils more or less seriously hurt. Several other houses were struck by lightning, but no one else was hurt. Farther west the lightning killed much stock.

Reports from surrounding towns are meager, as telegraph wires are down and trains have all been stopped on account of washouts. It is known, however, that many homes have been washed out in towns adjacent to El Reno, and it is feared many lives have been lost. West of here Frank Thompson and the 16-year-old son of Hiram McGriffen were drowned.
